MORE LIBERAL METHODS OF TREATING RESOURCES
UNDER SECTION 1902(r)(2) OF THE ACT

[ ] Section 1902(f) State [X] Non-Section 1902(f) State

1. The following resource regulations apply to Working Disabled individuals as defined in Section 1902(a)(10)(A)(ii)(XIII) of the Social Security Act:

   (a) Up to $10,000 of available resources shall be disregarded.

   (b) A resource disregard shall be given to a Working Disabled individual who holds monies in any Approved Accounts.

   The resource disregard shall equal the total of all monies held is such accounts

   These accounts will be held separate from non-exempt resources.

   Approved Accounts shall be used to save for any expense that will be determined by the state to enhance an individual's independence and/or increase employment opportunities.

   Approval for such accounts shall be obtained by the individual prior to the utilization of such disregard.
