Chapter	Section	Page	Change
Appendix D	-	D-2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Explain the purpose of the questions to the resident. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> — End by explaining that their his or her answers will help the care team develop a care plan that is appropriate for the resident.
Appendix D	-	D-3	Example: Read the item (or part of the item) to the resident, then say ask, “Do you have this at all?” If yes, then ask, “Do you have it every day?” If no, then ask, “Did you have it at least half the days in the past 2 weeks?”
Appendix D	-	D-3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Clarify using echoing. If the resident appears to understand but is having difficulty selecting an answer, try clarifying his or her his or her their response by first echoing what he or she he or she they told you and then repeating the related response options.
Appendix D	-	D-3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Record the resident’s response, not what you believe he or she they should have said.
Appendix D	-	D-4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> — If the resident remains agitated or overly emotional and does not want to continue, respond to his or her his or her their needs. This is more important than finishing the interview at that moment. You can complete this and other sections at a later point in time.
