

Low Income Subsidy Partner Resource Page

Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services Partner Center

<http://www.cms.hhs.gov/center/partner.asp>

This website contains resources designed for partners to help people with Medicare save money on prescription drug costs. It includes a variety of tip sheets, facts sheets, and toolkits to help you counsel people with Medicare.

Low Income Subsidy Partner Toolkit

<http://www.cms.hhs.gov/Partnerships/Toolkits/itemdetail.asp?itemID=CMS1188820>

This page contains tools to help you counsel people with Medicare on ways to help them save money on prescription drugs. The LIS Partner Toolkit includes LIS data, materials, CMS Regional Office contacts, photo novellas, and other useful materials.

National Medicare Training Program

<http://www.cms.hhs.gov/NationalMedicareTrainingProgram/>

This website contains training products that are designed for partners who work with people with Medicare to help them make informed health care and prescription drug coverage decisions.

Medicare.gov

<http://www.medicare.gov/>

This is Medicare's official website for providing information to people with Medicare. People with Medicare can use the tools on this website to find and compare health plans and prescription drugs plans in their areas. Viewing and printing publications on a variety of Medicare topics is another valuable feature.

Social Security Administration

<http://www.ssa.gov/prescriptionhelp/>

<http://www.ssa.gov/prescriptionhelp/mom.htm>

This is the Social Security Administration's official website for providing Social Security and Medicare information. People with Medicare can use information on this site to see if they qualify for extra help paying for prescription drug costs.

Limited Income and Resources Page

<http://www.cms.hhs.gov/limitedincomeandresources/>

This page contains information for those already receiving the Low Income Subsidy, including copies of CMS mailings.